Persimmon Ridge is located off of Aiken road at the corner of Shelby, Jefferson, and Oldham Counties. Take I-265 (Gene Snyder Freeway) to the Old Henry Road exit 29. Go East on Old Henry Road and at the next intersection, turn Right onto Bush Farm Road (which becomes Aiken Road). The natural lay of the land allowed golf course architect Arthur Hills to create a masterpiece of golf course design, which won the prestigious Golf Digest 2007 Outstanding Design award. The 18-hole Championship Golf Course takes you through woods, over creeks, around lakes and through a 120 foot elevation change during your round. Persimmon Ridge is ranked one of the most challenging golf courses in the region.
